Re: Opposition to Trustee's Application for Allowance of Fees and Expenses
Case No.: 13-20829-KCF
IN RE: Irene Lin.
Ret.: January 26, 2017, 2:00 pm
Oral Argument is waived

Dear Judge Ferguson:

Please accept this letter brief in opposition to Trustee's Application for Allowance of Fees and Expenses. The Oral argument is waived.

- 1. Trustee's Fees and Expenses in this case were accrued from defending its warrantless searches and seizures against the petitioner without this court's approval.

On December 23, 2013, Trustee and his Attorneys conducted searches and seizures against the petitioner without the Court's approval. While this Court did not sanction Trustee's and his attorneys' conducts, Trustee's application by Counsel for Allowance of fees and Expenses are products of the Doctrine of the Fruits of the Poison Tree and shall not be allowed.

2. Trustee's Fees and Expenses in this case were accrued from defending its stealing of Petitioner's trust funds for settlements and hiding the funds away from Trustee's trust account.

On October 20, 2014, Trustee and his attorneys stole Petitioner's trust funds. Trustee and his attorneys demanded Petitioner wired them Petitioner's trust funds as an escrow for the settlement in this case. Trustee and his attorney then stole Petitioner's trust funds by transferring Petitioner's escrow out of Trustee's trust account and into Trustee's designated other hidden accounts. While Trustee's and his attorneys' conducts are subject to the federal criminal probe of theft and corruption, Trustee's application by Counsel for Allowance of fees and Expenses shall not be allowed according to the Federal Public Anti-Corruption Acts.

Trustee's Application for allowance of Fees and Expenses are fraudulent, excessive, duplicative, and the fruits of poison tree.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner requests that this Court denies Trustee's Application for Allowance of Fees and Expenses.

Respectfully submitted.
